

CV for Hanne Lindegaard, Ethnologist PhD

Associate professor at The Technical University of Denmark and Program Manager for the master study program Design & innovation.

(born April 4th 1964)

Hanne Lindegaard is associate professor in User Oriented Design and Technology Analysis and part of the section for Innovation and Sustainability at DTU Management. She has a master's degree in European Ethnology from the University of Copenhagen, and a Ph.D. from DTU. The combination of the two disciplines have given her strong cross-disciplinary experiences combining ethnographic field study methodology with Engineering design approaches. Her research focuses are on the Socio- material approach to design and innovation and the theoretical and methodological framework from STS and discourse analysis. The areas of research/teaching are: Socio-technical analysis, Everyday Life, User Oriented Design, Field observations and Intercultural Studies.
